

Associated Medical Schools of New York
2024-25 Diversity in Medicine Scholarship
Applicant Checklist

APPLICATION DEADLINE

ALL MATERIALS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY 11:59PM ON FRIDAY, JUNE 14, 2024

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. Must be a current medical student who is a graduate of an AMSNY post-baccalaureate/master's program OR must be a current AMSNY post-baccalaureate/master's student
2. Must be enrolled in a New York State medical school for the academic year 2024-25
3. Must be domiciled in New York State per the regulations applied to SUNY in-state tuition determinations (available at <http://www.suny.edu/smarttrack/residency>)

APPLICATION COMPONENTS

- Curriculum Vitae (CV)
- Two Essays (each 400 words or less)
- Official transcript from the AMSNY post-baccalaureate/master's program
- Official transcript from medical school (does not apply to rising first-year medical students)
- Academic letter of recommendation
- Non-academic letter of recommendation

Recommendations should include a description of the recommender's relationship to the applicant and discuss the applicant's education/work achievements, communication skills, and the applicant's commitment and suitability to working with underserved communities.

- Financial status documentation, specifically Pell Grant and/or AAMC Fee Assistance

* NOTE: *Financial status is not an eligibility nor selection criteria for the scholarship. This information will not affect your scholarship application status.

Given the serious nature of the service commitment, AMSNY recommends that applicants view the stories from those who have served in the National Health Service Corps (<https://nhsc.hrsa.gov/member-stories>).